Canyon Smart Watches - gadgets for an active lifestyle!

Canyon offers the array of wearables for all types of physical activity. From classical fitness bands that track daily steps to full-fledged virtual trainers that help to maximize your achievements in sports.

Superior performance

With Canyon smart watches you can monitor daily activity, heart rate, ECG, sleeping time, get sedentary reminders as well as track multi-sport workouts, steps, receive training advices and more. Stay online - get incoming calls, message alerts and reminders from your smartphone. Some of the models are synced with Strava, the most popular fitness app. Canyon watches are designed in trendy shapes and colours, using pleasant-touch hypoallergenic materials. Visual interface is always clear and user-friendly. All models are protected from dust and water.

Canyon Life – custom Android and iOS Application

Canyon Life App syncs data with a smartphone, keeps it safely stored in a user-friendly interface. Advanced algorithms analyze stats, giving fitness tips. Canyon software dev team updates the app and provides personal user support.

Care about your loved ones

Canyon offers a range of GSM watches for kids and seniors with SOS buttons, location tracking, voice messaging and more. Take care about your children or elderly parents using the all-in-one smart solution by Canyon!

Canyon Life App

Fitness band with personal virtual coach

A real technological breakthrough in the world of sports gadgets created by Canyon! This fitness bracelet will support you as a virtual trainer on your way to success in sports. The gadget makes accurate measurements of such indicators as ECG, heart rate variability (HRV), readiness for training, stress resistance, the status of heart and muscles. Advanced algorithms allow the Smart Coach band and the Canyon Life App to accompany the athlete's full life cycle: training, recovery, exercise readiness. High-precision sensors provide accurate and frequent measurements, which are 5 times the amount of the closest analogs. Reliable synchronization with a smartphone ensures maximum inclusion in other aspects of your life. You'll never miss an urgent call, a message from the messenger, or a notification from social networks during training.

My Dino Smartwatch

This smart and useful gadget is suitable for children of junior school age. The interface of the watch is made by Canyon designers in a childish "hip-hop" style. Inside the watch, a cute dinosaur Dino lives. Let Dino be your kid's virtual friend in the world of health and sports. Your child can earn apples and feed them to Dino by doing workouts, walking or just not sitting still. Precise measurements of your child's activity will be provided by the watch's pedometer, heart rate monitor and other functions of a full-scale fitness gadget. The watch has two built-in brain-training educational games - "puzzle" and "math". In addition, the watch can show notifications from social networks and messengers, vibrate on incoming calls, display the weather and allow your kid to switch music tracks and camera shutter on a smartphone.

Let your child take care of Dino by exercising and achieving great results in real life!
