THE CUSTOMER

Qover is a popular online insurance company with plug & play solutions.

THE CHALLENGE

The Qover insurance solution is done 100% digitally. They wanted to enable bike store customers to digitally simulate an insurance offer, receive an offer by email, and if they wish, pay for it directly.

THE SOLUTION

Qover chose our Brandme Floor Stand with the Space Enclosure to present their tablets. Choosing the Brandme stand, enabled Qover to add their own logo (and message) on the brandable panel. The additional add-on Tray is being used to place and present their flyers and other materials in an organized way. By adding Compulocks' tablet floor stands to each shop, Qover was able to provide bike merchants with a dedicated digital solution that is easy to use and can fit into any store.

THE CUSTOMER

The French brand Schmidt and Cuisinella are kitchen, bathroom and cupboard fitting services. They offer customers different rooms dressing. They perform many exhibitions in their 600MR stores.

THE CHALLENGE

The display in the store was previously done on paper with a plexiglass display and labels attached to the exhibits. The paper was peeling off, it didn't look clean in the exhibitions and the visual rendering of the layout exhibitions were not very decorative with all its elements glued and placed in the exhibition.

THE SOLUTION

Schmidt and Cuisinella purchased the Samsung Galaxy tablets with the Compulocks Enclosures to seal it securely on the wall. This made the information more visually pleasing, the display more modern and the entire setting more intuitive for the customer to engage with.
